PARKING:

- Our landlord has established ONE-WAY traffic around our building, so please watch for a tall white neon sign north of our building proclaiming, “The Freight House”.
- Turn in to the parking lot between New England Kitchen Supply and our warehouse heading straight back toward The Freight House (and the Elixir Restaurant) at the rear of the parking lot.
- Turn right along the front of The Freight House, passing around the back (east side) of our building. At the south end of our building, turn right.
- During work hours, the four slanted spaces nearest South Main Street are designated by signs for TPHT’s exclusive use; no other slanted slots may be used by TPHT. After work hours, you may park anywhere. If all four slots are occupied during work hours, please circle the building again, and park on the gravel along the railroad tracks.
- Parking on South Main Street near our building is NOT ALLOWED.
- You may enter the building from the front (South Main Street) from which TPHT’s offices are through the glass door at the end of the hall; or from the south side, walking straight ahead.
